Progress!

- Located Fortran II compiler source listing
 - It's at the Smithsonian
 - It was donated by Peter Z. Ingerman (Thanks)
 - An inter-museum loan to CHM is underway
 - Mandatory 6-month lead time
- Located Fortran compiler source listing
 - Micah Nutt inherited microfiche from his father Roy
 - He plans “on investigating preserving these originals and also obtaining them in digital form”
 - I would like to help him!

More

- Dusty Decks documents my work:
<http://www.mcjones.org/dustydecks/>
- Paul Pierce's SHARE libraries: some 2400 files (source, binary) for 704, 709, ...
 - Includes several versions of SAP assembler (written by Roy Nutt)
- Time to write a 704 emulator!
- Also: GM-NAA I/O, MockDonald, SOS, FMS, ...

In conclusion

- I'm excited – are you excited?
